highway right-of-way. "I hope the big shots are happy," Marquar said, adding, "I'm losing almost $100,000 on today's market by crushing these cars. But this is only a nine-count, and I'd like the little people to know that I'm still here to save them money. I still have a few cars left and a telephone circuit to find parts." Cities lag in appointments to school needs committee

By ELLIS CUEVAS

A formation meeting of a committee to assess the educational needs of the Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District was held Tuesday.

An interesting point of the meeting was the fact that the three appointees each by the City of Bay St. Louis and Waveland were not present.

One member from the Bay St. Louis delegation is to be appointed chairman with one of Waveland's representatives to serve as vice-chairman.

Mayor Larry Bennett said Friday that the three representatives for Bay St. Louis would be recommended to the Council at a Tuesday meeting.

The representatives for Waveland will be named by the Waveland Aldermen at their regular meeting Wednesday, Oct. 22.

The group is to consist of 27 persons according to the plans submitted by the Bay School Board.

Waveland PTO representatives are Margo Frommeyer, Damon Wheeler and Fred Breland.

North Bay PTO named Lana Noonan, Charles Barrett and Percy McKay.

Tiger Booster Club appointed John Ginn and Bet Delcuz.

Mississippi Association of Educators placed Gail Carr, Lynn Parrish and Mary K. Dean.

American Federation of teachers selected Kathy Cacchayda and Nel Woodall.

Bay Waveland Committee for Better Education listed Thomas Raphael and Andrews Wilkinson.

James Ginn with Betty Dillol as substitute will represent the school board.

Mississippi Professional Educators will be represented by Francis Crowley and Carol Gaudet.

James Baldree is representative of the school district administration.

Fred Breland was selected as interim

A discussion was held on just what the duties of the committee are and the deadline for their recommendations to be submitted to the school board.

The group felt different phases of study should be considered by small groups of the committee.

The next meeting is set for Oct. 28 at 7 p.m.

The duties set down in the memo from the school board follows:

"Under the policy direction of the Board of Trustees and within the broad budgetary limits established by the Board, a District Educational Needs Assessment Committee is hereby established as an ad hoc committee to:

a. Examine the various educational programs in the District and determine the degree of success achieved by each program.

b. Determine the need for remedial programs to augment existing educational programs.

c. Determine the need for additional educational programs to meet the educational needs of the community.

d. Determine the desirability of deleting, combining, or otherwise modifying marginal existing programs.

e. Recommend funding priorities among the existing or proposed programs of the school district.

"The foregoing tasks will be accomplished for each of the following alternatives:

Five property owners oppose proposed Bayou LaCroix plant

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers Mobile District office recently received written objections from five owners of property near a proposed concrete plant site on Bayou LaCroix at the Hwy. 603 bridge.

Industrial Ready-Mix and Supplies Co., Inc. has requested a permit to relocate its present US-90 site in Bay St. Louis to the bayou location.

The re-located operation may include a shell sales operation, according to a company spokesman.

Local businessmen had voiced objections to the US-90 concrete operation at a City Council meeting several months ago.

The Corps issued a public notice last month requesting any objections to the concrete operation's permit application. The Corps deadline to receive comments was Wednesday.

A Corps spokesman said Friday, "We've received five letters from local people who live or own property in the area."

The spokesman would not reveal names of individuals who sent comments because the Corps is now in the process of forwarding copies of the complaints to the manager of the local concrete operation.

"We are not at liberty to release that information because the complainants may withdraw their objections... at the moment we are acting as an arbitrator," he explained.

"We will process the permit in an impartial manner to avoid trying to make a judgement value," he added.

"We have not sent copies to the applicant, but these should be mailed today. As of this time the applicant is not aware of any objections. After the applicant has reviewed the objections

Police seeking robbery suspect

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Bay St. Louis Police Chief Douglas Williams said late Friday his department expects an arrest soon in an armed robbery of the Junior Food Store at US-90 and North Second Street.

The store reportedly was robbed with the alarm being turned in at 1:25 p.m. last Sunday.

Williams said, "Our department has been investigating the armed robbery this week and we have some good leads."

"The suspect was identified as 20-24 years old, 5' 10", brown hair, clean shaven, with a mustache. After getting a cup of coffee he pulled a small hand gun out and demanded all the money," Williams added.

An undetermined amount of cash was reportedly taken and the manager was told to lay on the floor, police say.

The suspect fled in a small vehicle with black and white license plate believed to be from Louisiana.

Chief Williams said Bay Policemen Niel Sands Jr. and Robert Williams who were assisted by the Hancock County Sheriff's Department responded to the call.

Bay Investigator Matt Karl is conducting the investigation.

Arraignments

Set for Monday

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The arraignment of Holly Jean Wilson on manslaughter charges will be at 10 a.m. Monday, Oct. 20 at the Hancock County Courthouse, according to Gail Parker, Circuit Court administrator.

Wilson was indicted last week by the Hancock County Grand Jury in connection with the Sept. 26 shotgun slaying of her common law husband Charlie Cox of Bay St. Louis.

Other arraignments scheduled Monday in connection with Grand Jury indictments last week before Circuit Court Judge Ruble Griffin include Ronald Joseph Henry, burglary charges; Arthur Saucier, Jimmy Lee Mercer, Julius Saucier, Michael Millican, Frank J. Lombardo, Lawrence J. Peterson Jr., Stefan St. Clair, and David Wayne Lee, all burglary of a dwelling charges, according to the court administrator.

Other arraignments scheduled Monday before Judge Griffin and the charges involved include Jimmie Jordan, rape; Jerald Wayne Gray and William Edward Ollis, possession of a controlled substance; Lawrence J. Peterson, receiving stolen property; Millican and Clarence Anthony Taylor, grand larceny; and Larry Jackson, carrying a concealed weapon after conviction of a felony.

Reagan plans Mississippi visit

Presidential nominee Ronald Reagan has accepted an invitation from the Mississippi Sheriffs' Association to attend a country barbecue Wednesday at the association's Boys and Girls Ranch near Columbus.

"I received a telegram from Governor Reagan saying he will be with us Wednesday afternoon," said Billy Shaw, executive director of the ranch.

The event is slated to begin at 3:30 p.m., Shaw noted.

Shaw said the barbecue will be free and open to the public. The ranch is located south of Hwy. 82 and two miles north of the Golden Triangle Airport.

U.S. Rep. Trent Lott of Mississippi's Fifth District, Reagan's state campaign chairman, said he is delighted with the association's invitation to Reagan as well as the former California governor's acceptance.

The Sheriff's Boys and Girls Ranch is a non-profit operation sponsored by Mississippi's 82 county sheriffs and funded totally by private donations.

"This boys and girls ranch program is an outstanding effort to give children the opportunity to become productive citizens," Reagan said in accepting the invitation to the barbecue.

YOUNG MUSICIAN STRICKEN—Dr. Joseph Lee of Bay St. Louis, left, and Mobile Medic Technician Cliff Parker of Gulfport assist a stricken Vancleave High School band member near the visitors' stands at Tiger Stadium in Bay St. Louis Friday night. Just after halftime performances some eight members of the Bulldog band were overcome with chills and nausea. Hancock General Hospital Director of Nurses Kathleen Savage Saturday morning said eight band members were treated for possible food poisoning Friday night and released. Tests are now underway in the hospital laboratory to determine the cause of the illnesses. (Staff photo by Wayne Ducomb, Jr.)

CHECKING THE BAND'S COOLER—Dr. Joseph Lee of Bay St. Louis and Vancleave High School officials check a cooler of beverages Friday night for possible poisoning after some eight members of the school's marching band became violently ill after a football halftime performance at Tiger Stadium in Bay St. Louis. Also Friday night, some two dozen high school band members were hospitalized in Birmingham, Ala., after they were stricken during a football game in that city, apparently poisoned by an unknown source. Bay committee eyes ordinance

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

An Interim Bay St. Louis Architectural Committee recently formed by the City Council has selected the Downtown area for the first phase of an architectural improvement plan.

Members of the committee are now studying various ordinances enacted by several cities which are designed to preserve the architectural significance of certain areas.

The interim committee members decided Tuesday night its goal is to formulate an ordinance to help the final committee enhance Downtown area architecture.

The interim group also elected officers and initiated a plan to eventually form a permanent advisory committee to the city council.

Ward Two City Councilman James Thrifflay explained to committee members, "This group will eventually become an organization similar to New Orleans' Vieux Carré Commission which will work toward promoting architecture to enhance the community."

The Downtown commercial area is a commercially zoned area roughly encompassed by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, Toulon and State Streets, and the beachfront.

Interim committee officers elected are Chairperson Nell Frisbie, Secondary Chairperson Bonnie Tanner and Secretary Herta Smith.

Other members of the committee include Peggy Gibbon, Maggie Hayden, Carol Vegas, Cal Smith and Wayne Ducomb Jr.

The next committee meeting is scheduled for 7 p.m. Oct. 28 at City Hall.

and made his comments the complaints will be released to the public," the spokesman stated.

But the Corps spokesman said most of the comments described the Bayou LaCroix area as primarily utilized for recreational and residential purposes, but not for industry.

Hancock County has no zoning laws to regulate land use.

The spokesman added, "The people say in their letters they would rather not live in an industrial area and some talk about navigational problems and the environment."

However, a Bayou LaCroix resident objected earlier this week to the manner in which the Corps announced the permit application.

The Corps posted notices of the permit application in local public government buildings.

But Irion Bordelon, a resident of the Royal Oaks Plantation on Bayou LaCroix and president of Royal International Petroleum Corp. in New Orleans, said earlier this week, "The Corps has not contacted any residents in the area yet about the permit application."

"The rain will wash cement dust right into the bayou," he noted.

Bordelon cites in his letter to the Corps he "opposes the issuing or granting of this permit" to the concrete plant and requests a public hearing.

"...there will be some pollution. This is a residential and recreational area and should not be subjected to any type of industrial pollution—including noise, dust or traffic," he states.

"The granting of this permit would be the beginning of what could be an industrial takeover of Bayou LaCroix," Bordelon explains.

"Granting of this permit will mean barge traffic which would endanger the lives of pleasure boat owners and vehicular traffic using the Hwy. 603 bridge over the bayou," he said.

"Louisiana residents have been living with Lake Ponchartrain Causeway and many deaths have resulted from barge damage to the structure," he states.

H. Hunter White, bayou resident and retired vice president of Hibernia Bank in New Orleans, also filed written objections with the Corps echoing Bordelon's feelings about the plant.

"The discharge caused by the natural drainage of such a plant would adversely affect both the wildlife as well as the plant life in the area because the products handled would create dust which would affect the air and put chemicals into the surrounding waters because of the natural drainage," White told the Corps in urging the permit be denied.

The bayou resident feels "it would be a mistake" to grant a permit to the concrete operation.

The Corps has not yet received any written comments from any government agencies concerned.

However, Tom Thornhill, acting director of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service at the National Space Technology Laboratories in Hancock County, said Friday morning, "We just received information about the Bayou LaCroix permit today, and our comments will be forthcoming soon."

"We will make a statement on the impact on fish and wildlife resources. Our comments will strictly be wetland oriented," Thornhill noted.

"I can't say at this time what our comments will be," he added.

The Corps of Engineers spokesman said his agency has not yet written an evaluation of the proposed plant site permit and explained most of the objections pose questions not under the Corps' jurisdiction.

"We are sending copies of the complaints to the Bay St. Louis plant manager because we can't resolve those complaints," he stated.

"But we are requesting a response from the plant manager," the spokesman noted.

"Although the comment period is closed and we're proceeding on this application, we still are accepting comments from the public," he added.

Librarians to attend state meet in Biloxi

By EDGAR PEREZ

Hancock County Librarian Prima Wusnack will serve as chairman of the hospitality committee at a statewide meeting of the Mississippi Library Association Wednesday through Friday in Biloxi.

In addition, seven Hancock Library System staff members are expected to attend convention workshop sessions Thursday.

The City-County Library on US-90 in Bay St. Louis will be closed Thursday so that personnel may attend the convention workshops, Wusnack reported.

Also expected to participate in the convention at the Biloxi Hilton are Jeannette Purchner, president of the Hancock County Library System Board of Trustees; Trustee Rogers James; and Fran Trombley, past president of the trustees and chairman-elect of the Trustees Section, Mississippi Library Association.

More than 500 librarians from across the state are expected to participate in the convention which will feature a series of workshops designed to meet the needs and interests of library personnel from all types of libraries.

Speakers include Marilyn Van Derbur, television and radio personality and hostess of 23 23 network specials on CBS and NBC.

Her topic will be "Goals and Dreams" and will be presented at the President's Program and Banquet.

Thursday at 7 p.m.

Willie Morris, author of 'Good Old Boy,' 'Last of the Southern Girls,' 'North Toward Home' and 'A Southern Album,' will be the featured speaker for the first general session Wednesday at 6:30 p.m.

A recipient of the 1980 Dewey Medal for creative professional achievement, Robert Stuart, will be the speaker for the fourth general session at noon, Friday.

Dr. Stuart is dean of the Graduate School of Library and Information Science, Simmons College, Boston, Mass.

MLA's Education Committee has planned several workshops, including writing and publishing for libraries and librarians.

A workshop will be conducted on the role of libraries preserving visual history in Mississippi. A third workshop topic is microcomputers and their application in libraries.

Special interest groups in MLA have planned separate programs Thursday and Friday.

Meetings are open to the public.

The 1980 officers of the Mississippi Library Association are Lelia Rhodes of Jackson, president; Savan Tynes of Biloxi, vice president and president-elect; Miriam Green of Clarksdale, secretary; David Juergens of Jackson, treasurer; Jack C. Mulkey of Jackson, parliamentarian; and James F. Parks Jr. of Jackson, American Library Association councilor.

Ladner Building dedication set for Wednesday

Secretary of State Edwin Pittman said dedication of the Heber Ladner Building will be Wednesday at 10:30 a.m.

Formerly the State Executive Building, the 1980 Legislature renamed the building in honor of former Secretary of State Heber Ladner, who served for 32 years as Mississippi's secretary of state until he retired in January.

The dedication ceremonies will begin on the steps of the Heber Ladner Building. A public reception and open house in honor of Ladner will follow the dedication.

Governor William Winter, Lieutenant Governor Brad Dye, and Speaker of the House C. B. Newman are expected to be among the state officials taking part in the program.

Members of the Ladner family will be special guests for the occasion. The building, located at 401 Mississippi Street, Jackson, is situated in the Capitol Complex and is readily accessible to other governmental buildings and the general public.

The original plans for the building, dated August, 1924 were done by N. W. Overstreet, architect for the Mississippi Fire Insurance Company.

The building was purchased in the forties by the Mississippi Baptist Convention and was sold to the State of Mississippi in 1968.

Renovation plans were drawn by the architectural firm of Jones and Haas with Jordan Construction Company as general contractors.

Ladner, prior to serving as secretary of state, was elected to the House of Representatives from Pearl River County; was director of the Budget Commission and clerk of the House of Representatives.

He also was chairman of the Mississippi American Revolution Bicentennial Committee.

Waveland Players open third season November 1

While professional actors in Hollywood were walking picket lines to protest undesirable working conditions, their colleagues in Hancock County chose to go on with the show.

The Waveland Players are opening their third season with the George S. Kaufman-Morris Ryskind musical comedy "Of Thee I Sing."

Jay Decker, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Playune, is the presidential candidate John P. Wintergreen; and Susan Smith, well known to local theatergoers, fills the role of his First Lady, Mary.

The play, directed by Ollie McKenna, is a satiric look at life in the White House.

Popular local pianist Jean

Keen interprets the George and Ira Gershwin score, which includes several well-known songs.

Piccola Dietrich and Yvonne Chapman are choreographing and performing the dance numbers. Other performers in the White House farce are Ted Stechmann, Ed Ling, Barbara Fitch, Brother Pierre St. Pierre, Bunk Gardner, Terry Simpson, Hansel Baxter, Loren Hoover, Ed Craig, and John Adams.

Also, Yvonne Chapman, Jay Harris, John Helmers, Dottie Overall, Anthony Poffenharger, David Bryan, J.R. Roth, Jeanne-Marie Bell, Nancy Carson, Jerilyn Burns, Janet Aime.

And Doc Hatton, Piccola Dietrich, Monica Parker, Connie Moran, Melanie Cuevas, Daren Stechmann, Nina Simpson, Derek Stechmann, Hilary Harris, Sidney Doussan, Joe Overall, Bubby Dietrich, Elizabeth Hart and Danny Guillemin.

Technical crew includes Ted Stechmann, assistant director; Janet Aime, producer; Dick Fitch, stage designer; and Pam Barmgartner, properties manager.

"Of Thee I Sing" will open at the Civic Center Saturday, November 1 at 8:15 p.m. Performances will be given again November 7 and 8 at 8:15 p.m. with 3 p.m. matinees on November 2 and 9. Tickets at the door are $3.

Rotary slates annual fund raising dinner

The Bay St. Louis Rotary Club will host its annual Fund Raising Dinner Thursday from 5:30 to 8 p.m. at Virginia Hall, Christ Episcopal Church, 912 South Beach Blvd., Bay St. Louis.

The public is invited to the roast beef and fried chicken dinner with home made cake for dessert. Tickets may be obtained from any Rotary member or at the door for a donation of $5 per plate. Take out orders are available.

The funds raised will be used for community service projects. Some of the organizations which have received support from the Bay St. Louis Club are Boy Scouts, Therapy Swimming Program for Handicapped Children, Rahe Ruth League Baseball, Bay High School Field House, Hancock County Fair, Salvation Army Stamp Program, Polio Immunization Shots for 5000 Philippine Children, Rotary Foundation Scholarships, and Hancock County United Way.

President of the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club is Ellis Cuevas and chairman of the dinner is Robert Kane.

Committee chairmen are N. Mac Haas, tickets; Jan Brameyer, supply; James R. Shadoin, kitchen; Adolph G. Uram, customer service; and Rev. Charles Johnson, clean-up.

"The Rotary Club is dedicated to the ideal of serving the community and all money raised will be used for that purpose," Kane stated.

I feel it was a great honor to receive the gift of a painting of the old Woodman of the World Building from the Senior Citizens art class.

The painting by Art Instructor Carl Baldenhofer will bring back many memories of the more than 20 years of working in the building.

As you know, the Senior Citizens and also Retired Senior Volunteer Program people have developed some fine artists through the help of Professor Baldenhofer.

All I can say is thanks to everyone.

We have had several comments about the seven foot shark which was caught at the head of St. Charles Street Tuesday.

Some people are surprised that such a large fish was so near our shoreline and the fact it is so late in the year.

I guess we would be amazed if we could see everything under the waters of the Bay. I know I have wondered many times myself.

All I know about the shark is that it was over seven feet in length and rather streamlined in shape. I seen others the same length, but about twice the weight. Some have told me they thought it was a sand or dog shark which is common in the three to four foot depths in our waters.

I will tell you this, the mouth of the beast was large enough to take out a mighty big piece of someone.

Robert Kane, chairman of the annual Bay St. Louis Rotary Fund raising dinner, informs us that the pots are being stirred and everything is getting ready for Thursday night.

The menu will be roast beef and or fried chicken dinner and homemade cake for dessert. The event will be held at Virginia Hall, Christ Episcopal Church, 912 S. Beach, Bay St. Louis Thursday from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

All funds raised at the dinner will be used by the Rotary on community service projects.

A donation of $5 per plate for tickets in advance or at the door. We hope there will be a large turnout for this worthy cause.

The annual United Way of Hancock County drive is winding down to a close. We understand contributions through payroll deductions, corporate gifts, individual gifts and solicitations have been moving a little slowly after a fast start.

If you have not made your contribution, please try and get it in as soon as possible.

Give to the United Way — Thanks to You it works for all of us.

While talking about the United Way, next Sunday a cut-a-thon will be conducted by Shears Delight, with proceeds going towards the 1980 goal.

This is an annual event by Shears Delight, and there will even be reduced prices. The time will be from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m.

John Miller, owner of Shears Delight and his staff should be commended for their help towards the United Way.

All they will need will be customers to have their hair styled.

Homes urged to stock ipecac for poisons

What every American home needs is a small bottle of Syrup of Ipecac. This is to induce vomiting if someone, usually a small child, accidentally drinks or eats some household product that is poisonous.

BUSINESS VIEWPOINT

by Richard M. DeVos and Jay VanAndel

MAKE-UP OF CONGRESS IS KEY TO AMERICA'S FUTURE

After all of the media attention to the national political conventions in July and August, it is difficult to believe that only about half the voting age population will take part in the Presidential election this fall. If history is any indication, that will be the case.

In the last Presidential election, only 54 percent of those eligible turned out to vote. That means that less than 30 percent of the potential voters in America elected Jimmy Carter President of the United States. In the last 3 elections, the turnout has been similar. Even worse, the so-called off-year elections, those occurring in the even-numbered years between Presidential contests, produce turnouts of less than 40 percent.

Ironically, millions more go to the polls to elect a President than to select the members of the Congress. Yet it is the Congress that holds the power in Washington. It is the Congress which writes the laws, controls the purse strings, builds and maintains the bureaucracy. No President has ever spent a nickel of taxpayers' money which was not appropriated by Congress and no President has ever levied a tax that was not approved by the Congress.

Americans place a great deal of importance in the contest for President. They "get to know" the candidates and often become emotionally and personally involved in the selection process. The members of the Congress live much closer to us, but it is doubtful that most eligible voters really understand how the votes of their Senators and their Representatives affect their lives.

It is important to vote, but it is more important to vote intelligently. That means getting to know the performance of those in the Congress who represent us — paying attention to their voting records, letting them know how we feel about certain issues, and then determining whether they reflect our views or offer reasonable arguments for alternative positions.

The leadership of a President sometimes influences the performance of members of his own party in Congress. It does make a difference in U.S. relations with other nations of the world.

But the present economic and social conditions of this country are the direct result of legislation enacted by the members of the U.S. Senate and House of Representatives. For the most part, they have been allowed to act without serious challenge from their constituencies.

In the excitement of this Presidential election year, it would be well for every American to take stock of his own past performance in discharging his or her responsibility as an informed voter. Until the legislators in Washington are made to feel accountable to us, and until twice as many eligible to vote register and do so, we have no one to blame for the state of affairs of this nation but ourselves.

(Note: Jay VanAndel is Chairman of the Board of Amway Corp., Ada, Michigan, and just completed a term as Chairman of the Board of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Richard M. DeVos is President and co-founder of Amway.)

Mississippi's justice courts have outlived their usefulness, and the Mississippi Economic Council is urging revision of the state's lower court system.

"The state's lower courts served the state and its people well," said MEC Chairman Lewis F. Mallory, Jr., a Starkville banker, "but modern times and conditions require substantial revision within the justice court system."

Mallory explained that justice courts were provided in the state's 1890 Constitution at a time when Mississippi was predominantly rural and when disputes between neighbors and minor crimes needed to be resolved without delay or inconvenience.

"Advantages of the system in 1890 have largely disappeared today," said Mallory, "and serious problems exist within the administration of local level justice."

Mallory said that revision of the courts is mandatory if public confidence in the lower court system is to be restored.

But not all poisonings should be treated by inducing vomiting. Some are corrosive, caustic substances that burn the linings of throat and stomach. Bringing them back up would merely add to the damage. So, the American Medical Association points out, it is most wise to make a quick call to your family doctor or pediatrician before administering the Syrup of Ipecac.

The label on your small bottle of Ipecac should give the name of the product, proper dosage and poisoning conditions for which it should not be used.

If you suspect someone has accidentally taken a poisonous substance in your household, have someone with label intact.

Do not induce vomiting, says the AMA First Aid Guide book, if the patient is unconscious, is having convulsions, has pain or burning in mouth or throat, or is known to have swallowed a corrosive poison, such as toilet bowl cleaner, silver nitrate, lye, drain cleaner, washing soda, ammonia water, or chlorine bleach.

Give milk or water if the victim is alert and can swallow. But get him to the doctor fast.

If the poison is noncorrosive and your doctor tells you to induce vomiting, then administer the Syrup of Ipecac. When vomiting begins, keep the victim's face down, with head lower than hips.

Much better is to prevent poisoning. Keep all medicines and household chemicals out of the reach of children. Do not store non-edible products on shelves used for storing food. Read labels before using chemical products. Never re-use containers of chemical substances. Do not transfer poisonous substances to unlabeled containers.

phone the doctor. Save and give to the physician or hospital the poison container

The Bottom Line

Candid Answers To Your Questions About Advertising and Business Topics.

By S. GALE DENLEY
Associate Professor of Journalism

The ads for our specialty shop don't seem to be as productive as we feel they should be. Any ideas?

Dear Al: I have no way of knowing what your expectation might be, but I assume you are using some sort of systematic evaluation in making your assessment.

Most such checks involve a comparison between the increase in business, resulting from a percentage increase in promotion. But this can be a short-sighted view as most promotional efforts also produce some long-term residual effect.

Furthermore, just spending a certain amount on advertising is no more guarantee of business success, than spending money on pills guarantees good health. The cure must be appropriate and properly applied.

One frequent problem with specialty shops is misdirection of the ad message. Ads based on benefits to be derived by the ownership or use of the items are generally considered to be most effective.

Quite frequently, however, a purchaser may not be the ultimate user, as in the case of gift items. Here we find the benefits to the purchaser based not so much on the product features, but on the reaction of the ultimate user to the donor's selection. Product features will certainly be a factor in the acceptance, but determining the true motivation to purchase is the key to directing your ad message. In gift items the motivation to buy is to simply please the receiver. Therefore, any imagery created will be more effective if centered around the reaction of the receiver to the gift, rather than the receiver's use of the item.

Self-gratification can be a motivating factor. Many people feel on occasion they have earned or deserved a special treat for themselves. Therefore their purchases are made not so much to enjoy the benefits of the use of the product, but to enjoy the self-indulgence of buying it for themselves.

Again, what this means is that effective ads are directed, or pitched, to attract the purchaser. The most effective appeals are usually based on benefits—but misdirection may be needed in order to appeal to the real motivations to buy.

You cannot assume that all people buy for the same reasons, therefore you probably cannot devise an effective ad to appeal to all prospects.

The more general the appeal, the weaker it becomes; but as the appeal becomes more specific, even though to a limited audience, it also becomes quite strong.

By S. Grady Thigpen

Thigpen expounds on his hobby: 'History Hunting'

Many people seem to think that history, to be interesting or worthwhile, has to be about some distant place or about strange people.

It seems not to occur to us that the history of our own area is much more interesting and important to us, and that among our own people are men and women as worthy of the notice of historians as those to be found anywhere. For many years "history hunting" has been a fascinating hobby or avocation with me. I have notes made as long as 50 years ago when people have told me interesting facts about this area along and back from Pearl River.

However, not until recent years have I had the leisure to devote much time to searching out the historical events occurring here, and getting information on the interesting personalities who have lived in this vicinity.

I'll never forget with what eager interest I followed Mr. A.J. Bilbo, now deceased, for many years over the site of the old Indian town at Center, just east of where Caesar now is in Hancock County.

I'll never forget with what rapt attention I listened to him describe the layout of this old Indian town. Mr. Bilbo's home stood in the midst of what was once this Indian community of some 1,500 people—the biggest Indian town in South Mississippi.

On the ridge to the north of his house, Mr. Bilbo showed me where the Indian ball games were held, attended by many Indians from over a wide area in South Mississippi.

The clear running little stream of cool water just to the west goes to this day by the name of Playground Branch. Jackson's army camped there in the fall of 1814 on the way to the battle of New Orleans.

Mr. Bilbo showed me where the first county seat of Hancock County stood down in the hammock to the south of his home. He pointed out the depression in the ground with red clay still visible where the old dungeon was.

He showed me small patches of red clay where chimneys once were, indicating that a number of houses had been there.

Playground Branch must have been the main water supply of the old town as it forms a semicircle around it.

Japanese like cars. More than one of every two families in Japan now has a private car, and the average driver has over 10 years' experience. A recent survey showed that most Japanese now take their cars for granted and could not get along without them, in sharp contrast to the mid-1960s, when "family cars" first started to find a market in Japan.

Center, which went by an Indian name of the same meaning, was the Indian seat of government for a big area before the white man came here.

Though grown up in trees and most signs of the old town gone, I felt a deep sense of history as I stood there surveying this old Indian town site and down the ridge—the first county seat of Hancock County.

After this area became a part of the United States, Center continued to be the main town of a big area. People from as far away as Biloxi to the east and Poplarville and Cross Roads to the north went to Center to transact their business.

Before Hancock County was organized, Center was the headquarters of the government agents sent to this new possession. All trails, or roads led to Center in the old days. As I have learned more and more about this area up and down Pearl River, I am more and more impressed with the interesting history of what we call the old days.

My first visit to Gainesville was along in the early 1920's. Gainesville at that time had declined from a once bustling busy town to an almost deserted village.

Many old homes still stood there then as mute evidence of a once prosperous community.

Alfred Miller, who passed away many years ago, described the old Gainesville as I eagerly listened. That was when I first realized the importance in the early days of this old former County Seat of Hancock County.

Mr. Miller showed me the square where the courthouse once stood. He told me of the glories that were once Gainesville. He pointed out homes still standing that belonged to prominent people who had long since moved away.

He showed where the old Politeven saw mill stood. I drove around over old Gainesville with something like a feeling of awe, and again felt as if in the presence of the past. My desire to know much more was whetted by what I had seen and heard.

Mr. E. J. (Uncle Van) Stockstill, at 95, told me of living as a boy in old Gainesville. I eagerly sought him out time after time to get more and more information from him about this old time town where everyone in this section went when they went anywhere at all in the long ago. Gainesville was the important trading place for people living in this area 100 years ago because Gainesville was the only town anywhere near back then.

Logtown when I first went there was at its zenith. I first went to Logtown in 1918 as an employee of Crosby and Rowlands to exchange deeds whereby Crosby and Rowlands deeded land and timber they owned near Weston's logging operation for land and timber that Weston owned near Crosby and Rowlands' logging operation.

Two big saw mills employing hundreds of men were in operation in Logtown back then.

There was a railroad from Logtown to Ansley on the L & N Railway, and one from Logtown to Picayune.

Two company stores at Logtown and at Weston carried tremendous stocks of merchandise. These stores were much bigger than any in Picayune at that time.

There were dozens of nice homes in Logtown. The streets and lawns were well kept and attractive. Carloads of lumber were shipped daily from Logtown, and big cargoes were carried out on barges pulled by tugs to be loaded on ocean going steamers in the Gulf.

Logtown was for many years a town of some 2,000 to 3,000 people. Logtown, Napoleon, and Pearlington were all old communities a hundred years ago with a history very different from any other section of the United States.

Ever since I came to this area in 1917, Pearlington has had a particular fascination for me. Since I first saw Pearlington along about 1920, I have been most interested in the history of this old river town.

When I first saw Pearlington the big mill had been shut down for many years. Everything about this historic old town when I first went there showed neglect.

There were dozens of 'big find old homes in Pearlington, showing that this had once been a town of importance and of great wealth.

Pearlington one time boasted of having the biggest sawmill in the world with a daily capacity of 200,000 board feet of lumber per day.

Pearlington was once of such importance that the Mississippi Legislature visited this old town.

Sam Russ, former citizen of Picayune, grew up in Pearlington. He said that from the porch of his family's old home fourteen smoke stacks could be counted.

I first became conscious of the unusual history of the old home of Choctaw Indian chiefs on the bluff of the Mobolochitto river in north-west Picayune where the R.H. Crosby family now lives when Arthur Smith, a former resident of Picayune, published a series of stories about this old place in the Picayune Item along about when I first came here.

For many years, probably hundreds of years, this scenic spot at the confluence of the two creeks that make the Hobolochitto River was the home of Choctaw Indian chiefs.

It was characteristic of the Choctaw all over their nation to select the most beautiful spots for their abodes.

The most famous of the Choctaw chiefs to live there was Hobolo, for whom the river was named.

The last chief to live there, named Muchihira, sold the place to Stephen Jarrell, a French trader who established a trading place there.

During the war of 1812 when Jackson made his historic march over land from Alabama to the defense of New Orleans, Moses Cook, a quarter master in Jackson's army, visited Jarrell's store several times to buy supplies for the army.

There were no supply trains, motor trucks, etc., to furnish Jackson's army. This big army had to live off the country.

Moses Cook fell so in love with this old home of Indian chiefs that after the war was over he came back and bought it from Jarrell.

It was ideally located as a business site, as it was on the old road running north and south through this area.

Moses Cook developed the property into a good sized plantation. He became the owner of many slaves, operated a store there, rented rooms in his home to travellers, and was postmaster of Hobolochitto, the first post office in what is now Pearl River County.

He built a bridge across the river and charged a small toll for crossing it.

As under the Indians, this old place continued as the central point of interest in the Picayune area for many years.

The first time I ever saw a map of the land along Pearl River my curiosity was excited as to why the irregular land lines were found there while all the other land lines in the county were in regular descriptions. A Another oddity for which I sought an explanation was why these irregularly described tracts of land had on them the names of people, while there was no such designations on the regularly sectionalized land in the balance of the county. In the old days Pearl River was the highway too the interior of this section of the country, just as the railroad later became the easy way of access.

The land along the river was in great demand for this reason. When settlers came in, under Spanish rule, they settled along this artery of transportation, getting Spanish Land Grants from the Spanish officials in charge of this area.

A settler would come in, find the best and most convenient unoccupied location on the river, blaze out a claim, and get title to it under his name.

Some of the names of these old claims are Douglas McCall, Hugh McCall, Moses Murphy, Thomas Holmes, Alexander Frazier, Solomon Lott, Simon Favre, William Dean, and many others.

Since there were now few people by these names owning these old claims, I wondered what had become of them.

I found out that many of them became dissatisfied with the titles they had to their land and left after staying a comparatively short time.

Governments changed, and as they changed land tenures changed.

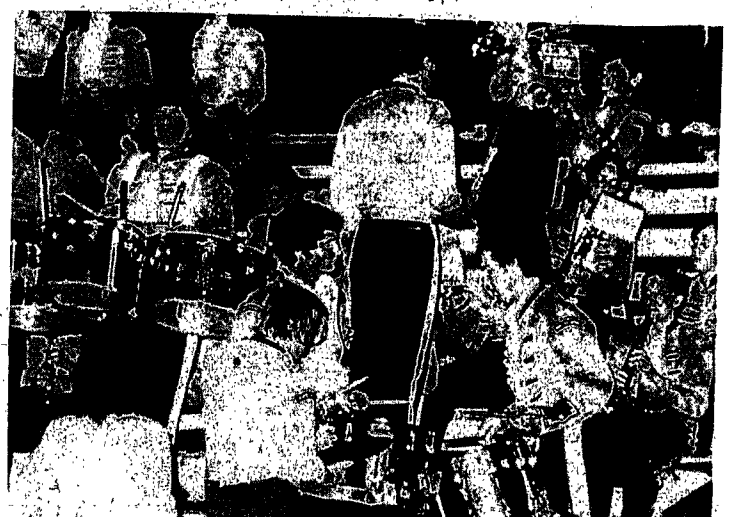

Sometimes as many as three or four, or even more people laid claim to the same land.

After the U.S. Government took over, land claims were settled by allowing no one to own large tracts, and where there were multiple claims, dividing the land among the claimants.

These are just a few of many historic places in this section of the country so different from that of any other section of the USA.

FIRST ARSON REWARD—State Insurance Commissioner George Dale, right, and Mississippi Insurance Council Chairman Walter Duncan, left, present Mississippi's first Arson Reward to Lincoln County Sheriff Houston Jordan. Sheriff Jordan accepted the cash reward on behalf of an informant whose testimony led to the conviction of an arsonist. The "Cash for Hot Tips" arson reward program is being initially funded by the Mississippi Insurance Council, a non-profit organization of insurance companies and agents. Rewards of up to $1,000 are available for information leading to apprehension, indictment and conviction of anyone responsible for willful destruction of property by fire or explosion.

Hawks dehorn Blue Devils 14-7

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Hancock North Central quarterback Bobby Devaughn scored two fourth quarter TD's, added a two point conversion to give the Hawks a 14-7 victory over arch rival Pearl River Central Friday.

The Blue Devils jumped to a 7-0 lead with 9:30 left in the first quarter when Joe Walton ripped off a 60 yard score.

As the game ended head coach Irvin Favre said, "The game made you a little nervous, we were flat on offense in the first half, but, came to life in the second half."

"We seemed to be able to do everything but cross the goal in the first half, we should have scored at least two TD's," Favre added.

Coach Favre continued, "Overall we played a good game, our defense was very good. We knew we had to contain Walton, because he is a good back."

Walton made several long gainers, but, the Hawks cut him down everytime except the long scoring run.

The Hawks completed very few passes, but the ones they did complete came at key times, according to Favre.

The Hawks first score came after Don Moran recovered a Blue Devil fumble on the Hawks 27. This came in the last part of the third quarter when was PRC driving.

Devaughn engineered a 13-play drive capped by his plunge from the one on a second try at a quarterback sneak.

A two point conversion failed leaving the Hawks trailing 6-7 with 11:23 left in the game.

The scoring drive included a key pass to Moran and some hard running by Devaughn, Lloyd Henry, and Glen Meranto, behind some fine offensive blocking.

The Hawks did threaten in the first stanza when a long drive bogged down and a nine yard field goal attempt by Keith Glass was wide. After turning the ball over to third play from scrimmage. Lyons added another recovery of a fumble in the second stanza.

PRC, Shannon Lyons recovered a fumble on the Hawks 34 on the Blue Devils

Devaughn hit Harry Henry with a beautiful pass one yard out of the end zone. Several plays later the Hawks coughed up the ball on the six and it was recovered by PRC on the first play of the second quarter.

The Hawks took 13 plays again as they engineered a 72 yard scoring drive highlighted by a Devaughn to Faron Hoda pass good for 26 yards moving to the PRC 19.

Devaughn moved in from the four for the score with 4:44 left in the game and added the two point conversion just crossing the goal line before being tackled.

The Hawks registered 19 first downs to 9 for the Blue Devils. Hancock defense held PRC to only two first downs in the second half.

Favre commented on the hot humid weather having an effect on the players in the game, saying, "We were about fatigued at the end of the first half, some cramps, but, seemed to get our second wind in the final stanzas."

"We did a good job scouting the Blue Devils, they came out and ran the ball with very little passing like we thought they would do, and we were able to stop them," Favre allowed.

The victory puts the Hawks at 4-3 for the season as they now prep for a road visit to D'Iberville next Friday.

HANCOCK ROYALTY—Members of the Hancock North Central Court were present at Homecoming ceremonies when Tammy Davis was named Queen for 1980. The maids and their escorts were, left, Pamela Ladner and father Laverne Ladner; Terri Ladner and uncle Berlin Ladner; Tracy Lewis and step-father Alton Dixon; Bernadine Neelise and father Frankie Neelise; Cathy Smith and father Arthur Crawford; 1979 Queen Natalie Neelise Koenen; Queen Tammy Davis and father H.

G. Davis Jr.; Dywana Dedeaux and uncle David Ladner; Angela Peters and cousin William Willis; and Bridgett Hall and uncle Maurice Cousin. The flower girl was Ariette Ladner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Ladner, and crown bearer Jeffery Favre, son of Coach and Mrs. Irvin Favre. Bay High loses, 7-22

Bulldogs corner Tigers in second half comeback

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The Bay Senior High School Tigers football team lost to the Vancleave High School Bulldogs in a local contest Friday night, 7-22.

Although the Tigers held a winning 7-0 score by the end of the second quarter, Bay High appeared to run out of steam at the end of the first half.

The Tiger downfall began after a key Bay High pass was intercepted in the end-zone by a Vancleave defensive player with about one minute left in the first half of the contest.

Unseasonably warm, humid temperatures and weather forecasts of rain apparently brought a sparse turnout of fans on both sides.

However, the rain held off and temperatures cooled slightly during the game.

Vancleave fielded a team smaller in number and size compared to Bay High, but the Bulldogs appeared to be a lot cooler when the game got tough and executed key plays smoothly.

The Tiger defense held the Bulldogs early in the first quarter.

In Bay High's second offensive play of the evening Quarterback David Gillum fumbled a handoff to Runningback David Gillum which Bulldog Wide Receiver Eugene Reddix immediately recovered on the line of scrimmage.

But shortly after the fumble Bay High's defense blitzed the Bulldogs with a Tiger defensive man deflecting a pass by Vancleave Quarterback Mike Seymour.

Quick thinking Tiger Split End Dennis Rhodes intercepted the bungled pass for Bay High.

The Bulldogs' defense held the Tigers to set up a strong Vancleave offensive drive.

But in a third down situation on Bay High's 27 yard line, speedy Tiger Runningback David Gillum intercepted a Mike Seymour pass near the goal line and scrambled all the way down field to score for the Tigers.

Bay High Field Goal Specialist Van Fayard upped the score to seven-zero.

Vancleave came back with a strong rushing and passing drive, but a 35-yard field goal attempt by the Bulldogs fell just short and right of the uprights.

Bay High got a break in a fourth and five situation with a Bulldog penalty, but Quarterback Steve Seymour threw an interception to Vancleave's Wide Receiver Michael Fountain.

The Tiger defense held Vancleave in their own territory and Bay High offensive squad came back and hammered down to the Bulldog 10 yard line.

But the Tigers got nervous and were penalized five yards for jumping offside.

The turning point in the game occurred when a Steve Seymour pass intended for Wingback Stephen Hargett was intercepted by Tailback Mark Warren in the end zone.

From that point on the Tigers seemed to lose hope. Halftime activities featured on-field performances by the marching bands of both schools.

The Bulldogs came back strong in the second half and began hammering down field with well executed rushing and passing plays.

Vancleave's first score came with four minutes and 40 seconds left in the third quarter when Mike Seymour served up a short pass to his workhorse, Warren.

A good Bulldog PAT tied the game seven-up.

Offensive and defensive teams battled without significant gains through the end of the third period and in the beginning of the fourth quarter.

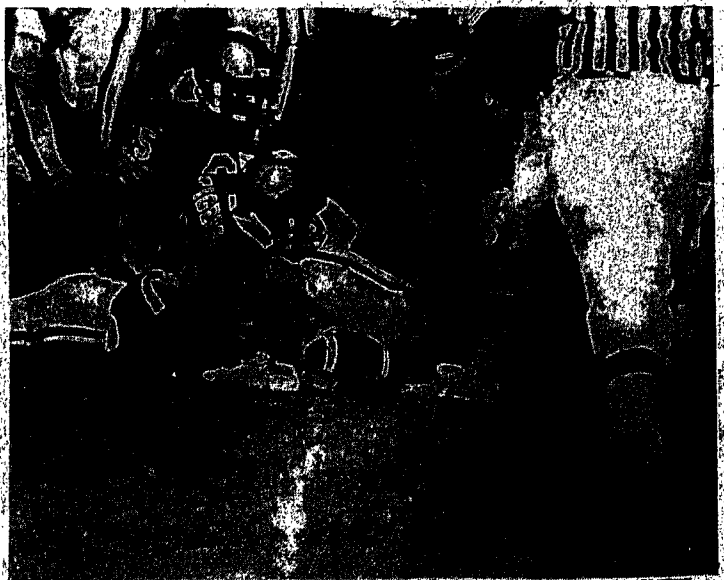

But in the middle of the fourth period the Bulldog's Warren-Seymour combination proved to be too much for the wearying Tiger defense.

On the one yard line Warren dove over the left side of the line for another six with six minutes and 33 seconds left in the game.

A fake kick play got Vancleave conversion points and a score a 7-15.

Bay High's offensive team couldn't overcome the Bulldog defensive game.

Rock-A-Chaws edge Yellow Jackets, 10-6

By Randy Ponder

Running-back Scott Simer scored with no time remaining on the clock as the St. Martin Yellow Jackets averted a shut-out at the hands of the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws. The Rocks won the Friday night football contest 10-6 in Bay St. Louis.

Mark Schultz started the game at quarterback for the Rock-A-Chaws. Joe Gex was moved to fullback.

The first quarter of play ended scoreless with neither team able to mount much of a threat.

St. Stanislaus did have one scoring opportunity when David Caserta intercepted a Jeff Webb aerial at the St. Martin 30.

The Rock-A-Chaws were forced to punt when three consecutive running plays netted 15 yards in the wrong direction.

Following an exchange of punts the Rocks had the football on their 38. A handoff to Gex moved the ball out to midfield. This was one of only four first downs the Rocks made all night, but it was a big one.

Two plays later a pass from Schultz to Marc Meyer put St. Stanislaus in business at the Yellow Jacket's 38. This set up the play of the game.

Quarterback Schultz pitched the ball out to Gex and Gex fired the pigskin to Juan Betanzos for a 38 yard touchdown pass. Betanzos booted the PAT through the uprights and into the cemetery. A five yard penalty for illegal procedure before the kick didn't seem to bother him at all.

Near the end of the first half the Yellow Jackets had the football on their 20 following a Pat Kergosien punt. Nose-guard Mark Lichtenstein busted through the line to cause and recover a fumble that set up a 33 yard field goal attempt.

The Rocks hurriedly called a time out with only six seconds showing on the clock. Juan Betanzos drilled the ball over the outstretched hands of the St. Martin defenders and between the goal posts to give the Rocks a 10-0 halftime lead.

The St. Martin band performed first during intermission, followed by the Rock-A-Chaw marching unit. Both groups put on a spirited show in spite of the unseasonably hot and muggy weather.

A fumble by the Rocks early in the second half appeared to give the Yellow Jackets a chance to get back into the game. However, after recovering the fumble on the Rock-A-Chaw's 27, St. Martin returned the favor on their second try from scrimmage.

Dave Boos got the ball back for the Rocks, after Yellow Jacket running-back Tony Bennett fumbled. The Rock-A-Chaws punted several plays later.

St. Martin's longest drive of the contest began at the start of the final period. They moved from their own 19 to the 19 of St. Stanislaus where they turned the ball over on downs.

The Rocks couldn't get anything going and had to give the football back to the Jackets with two minutes left in the game.

With no timeouts remaining, the Yellow Jackets were able to move the ball to the Rock-A-Chaw goal line using sideline passes and short runs to the outside.

The Jackets only score came on Scott Simer's two yard run up the middle. A try for a two point conversion was unsuccessful and the final score was 10-6.

"This had to be our best team effort of the year," Rock's head coach Barry Jones stated. "Both teams played good, hard hitting football. It was a cleanly played game with very few penalties," Jones added.

The win evened the Rock's conference record at one win and one loss. St. Stanislaus is 5-2 overall. The Yellow Jackets fell to 3-4.

Next week St. Stanislaus will host arch-rival Bay High. The Tigers are 1-6 for the year but when these two teams meet you can throw out all the records.

Should the Rock-A-Chaws win they will be the county champions, having already defeated Hancock North Central 9-6 in the Rock's homecoming game.

Game time will be 7:30 p.m. at the St. Stanislaus football stadium.

WHAT NOW COACH?—Quarterback Mark Schultz confers with St. Stanislaus head coach Barry Jones during first period action of a SSC St. Martin game in Bay St. Louis Friday night. This was Schultz's first start. The Rock-A-Chaws won the contest 10-6 even though the Yellow Jackets outgained the Rocks 159 to 123 yards and led in first downs, 13-4. Each team had 30 yards in penalties marked off against them. St. Stanislaus is now five wins and two losses on the year and will host the Bay High Tigers next Friday night at 7:30 p.m. (Staff photo-Randy Ponder)

Vancleave got ball possession just inside Tiger territory and began a downfield charge.

In a fourth down situation on the Tiger one yard line, Vancleave scored with 87 seconds left in the game.

The Bulldogs' extra point was also good which brought the game score of 7-22.

Vancleave Head Coach Jack Shoemaker said just after the game, "We showed a tremendous amount of courage and came back in the second half."

"Our offensive line sucked it up and blew Bay High off the field," he stated.

The Bulldogs have a six-zero game record for the season.

Next Friday Bay High will play local rival team St. Stanislaus High School in Rock-A-Chaw Stadium beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Bay High has a one-six game record and SSC has a five-two game record.

Pass edged 10-8

Big D's shine in Pirate-Rebel contest

By EDGAR PEREZ

The Pass Christian Pirates were edged again Friday, this week by Harrison Central Red Rebels in a titanic defensive struggle.

Led by linebacker Michael Hall, the Pirate defensive line kept the visitors from moving within the Pass 30 yard line throughout the first half.

In an exciting save, Pirate tailback Oscar Bailey intercepted a Rebel long ball in his own end zone to quash an early drive by the homecoming opponents.

But even though the Rebels were unable to set up a touchdown situation, they managed some 230 yards rushing to only 33 for the Pirates.

Pass Christian quarterback Buck Bradley led the Pirates offensive effort with 95 yards through the air.

The Rebels first penetration beyond the Pirate 30 yard line came early in the third quarter when Rebel kicking specialist Eddie Bailey, on a third down and three situation at the Pirate 28, booted one through the uprights.

The contest continued as a defensive struggle until less than a minute remained in the game when Rebel quarterback Wesley Jones on a keeper was stopped at the Pirate 41—the line of scrimmage—but broke loose before the whistle to scamper the distance for six points.

Mark Blackmer converted to give his side a 10-0 lead with only 36 seconds remaining in the game.

Bailey downed the kickoff at his own 20 with 29 seconds left.

With four seconds left, Bradley connected with Greg Porter at the Rebel 35 and Porter carried the ball the rest of the distance leaving Rebel defenders strewn in his wake.

Bradley kept to sneak over for two points to help satisfy a victory-starved home crowd in McDonald Stadium.

On the short end of the 10-8 score, the Pirates tried an on-side kick with a few seconds left, but the Rebels gained possession and the clock ran out.

"They threw everything they had at us," Pirate coach Bob Lumpkin said later.

"Our entire defensive squad played a really fine game, everybody played well," the coach feels.

"And Michael Hall was a standout on defense as usual," Lumpkin added. "He's a fine linebacker—he gets to the football wherever it is."

"The trouble was, even though our offense didn't do a bad job, the Rebels turned in a really good defensive job themselves," Lumpkin added.

Stalwart lineman Rusty Blackwell of the Pirates sustained a shoulder injury early in the second half, but while completing two of ten tries.

Two Rebel punts averaged 23 yards while seven boots by Pirates lost one interception, while completing two of ten tries.

The Rebels lost their only fumble, and the Pirates recovered their only bobbles.

Pirate Darrell Hayden averaged 30 yards each.

The Rebels lost their only fumble, and the Pirates recovered their only bobbles.

In a clean ballgame, Pass lost 20 yards on two infractions, and the Rebels 30 yards on 4 calls, primarily for off sides.

The Pirates will take on East Central in Jackson County this week.

Junior Hawks defeat PRC

By ELLIS CUEVAS

The Hancock North Central Junior Hawks defeated Pearl River Central Blue Devils 22-16 in a double overtime contest Thursday night.

At the end of regulation play the score was knotted at 8-8 and at the end of the first overtime, 16-16.

The Junior Hawks scored with only 43 seconds left in the first half when fullback

Donald Graham carried in from two yards out. Quarterback Scott Favre added a two point conversion on a keeper.

PRC came right back on the second half kick-off to score on a 75 yard run with a two point conversion.

In the first stanza of overtime the Blue Devils scored and added two more extra points. The Junior Hawks Lydel Curry scored from four yards out, then added the two extra points to tie at 16-16.

Pearl River again had the ball first and failed to score and Curry on the first play ran in from ten yards out giving the Junior Hawks a 22-16 victory.

The second TD by Curry was his ninth in five games.

The second win in a row moved the Junior Hawks

Masculine Grooming Conveys Lifestyle

New York, N.Y.—Little Langtry and Madame de Pompadour groomed their way up social ladders to wealth and fame. The Prince of Wales and Beau Brummel paid more than average attention to their sartorial habits and set style on its ear for a generation or two. Grooming habits tell the world volumes about social position, ambition, and self esteem. They certainly define one's lifestyle on a day to day basis and go far to determine success, and accomplishments.

Today's woman can convey her exact message with Charlie—now the male counterpart. Chaz offers the 1980's man that same ease of expression. Men today have grown to maturity through the vapid 50's, the angry 60's, and the slick 70's. They have had it with artifice. They handle their anger well. Women's liberation brought them the gift of reconfirmed masculinity and they were brave enough to accept it. The "way between men and women" has a quiet and permanent truce through self knowledge and self acceptance. In the revolution against puffery and toward confidence, Chaz is a leading munitions supplier!

Interestingly, the world is smaller for the Chaz man. He is at home in the American West but not a stranger to chic, urban avenues. Mid-western towns have a special appeal to him as does back packing in North Maine, and biking through Marin County or bikini lounging in the Caribbean. The Chaz man is at home in this world—as he is at home in his own skin. Comfortable with the women in his life, he has no fear of board room camaraderie or locker room jostling after a soft

Diamondhead News

The DLTA had a Mixed Double Tennis Tourney October 12, followed by a covered dish dinner and barbecued ribs by chef Joe Tuccia. There were 17 teams entered.

Katie Moran took first for the ladies with Patty Hourin second. John Pfeiffer won the men's division with Bill Gold and Jay Kraft tied for second. When Bob and Marge Prlugfelder stage an "Oktoberfest" we can all be assured that it will be perfect. The buffet was laden with German dishes, the orchestra was excellent and when the crowd sang "God Bless America" there were many tear-filled eyes. Patriotism is not dead with our generation.

The team of Al Kirk-Saul Rubin won the first day with Baker-Brennan, Carns-Prlugfelder and Christenson-Watson tied for second.

The second day Blind Bogey went to E.C. Dean-Fred Roseman. Bonwell-Buffat, 2nd. Rawls-Pross, Lamendola (Lee Arnold partner) - Johnson. (Sandy Middleton partner) all tied for third. The 36 hole score: Dean and Roseman first, Doody and Wattigney second and Rawls and Pross third.

The 36 hole Low Gross went to Darwin Hoppert-Don Hertel, Russell and Smallwood second and Christenson-Watson third. Claude Boudreaux won low puts at the Member-Guest Tourney at Timberlane Country Club in New Orleans.

John Boudreaux won "A" Flight, Walt Schlessman second and Bert Terrell and Milt Haggard tied for third. "B" Flight went to Glenn Smith, Joe Stackhouse and Sid Watson tied for second and Stan Robert won fourth.

"C" Flight champ was Luther Grice while Louie Gibson and Bob Bradley tied for second. The Cliff Russels had as their guests for the Oktoberfest Kim and Bill Smallwood of Gulfport, Joyce and Lou Majors hosted Betty and Jim Tarkenton of Gretna, Mary and Jack Baker had Clair and John Brennan of New Orleans.

The boaters held a Halloween party. Coming away with the first overall costume prizes were Cecil and Tom Ballard and Isabelle Lund as Raggedy-Anns.

First runner up was Lee Peterson and Carol Cain as pumpkins; second, Betty and Tom McMurry as the Oriental group; third, the explorers Ida Mae and Ed Snow as the bird and the explorer - don't know which was which.

Connie and Scott Warfield are getting over jet lag after their flight home from Hong Kong. They had a wonderful trip.

The Doussans are home, at least four of them. Kat and Al, Maggie and Bert, after a cruise on the Song of Norway. Joanie and Todd Shelton along with their two children surprised everyone by coming for a visit from Saudi Arabia.

Father Lambert of Clairmont Harbor and Father Francis Toner of Norfolk Va., were guests of DH for golf and dinner.

Cindy Middleton has left for her home in London to join her husband John after a delightful summer here. She wants everyone to know how nice the people and the employees have been to them. She shall return early next year.

Shiyou honored with party

Miss Zilyann Shiyou was honored with a surprise birthday party at her home on October 13.

Among those attending were Mrs. Hilda Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ladner, Mr. and Mrs. Clements Killnar, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cuevas and Marcus and Rachel; Mrs. Lena Ladner, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Pavolini and Anna and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peterson.

Also Mrs. Lillian Hall, Mrs. Effie Mazarakis, Mrs. Mary Ellen and Lisa Ladner, Mr. Jimmie Ray, Byron and Tammy Ladner, Mrs. JoAnn Knight and Rena; Susan, Annette, Marcia and Brian Ladner.

Bridal shower fetes Hays

Karen Hays, bride-elect of Dale Asher of Bay St. Louis, was honored with a surprise bridal shower on Sunday, Oct. 26 at Kathleen Asher's Studio on Hwy. 90 west.

The event was hosted by Mrs. Asher, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Debra Estapa, cousin of the groom.

Guests included Mrs. Rose Lewis, Mrs. Curtis Asher, Mrs.

Judy Bowen, Mrs. Fred Herlihy, Mrs. Betty Gabriel, Mrs. Elaine Anderson, Mrs. Elaine Spiers, Mrs. Hazel Spiers, Lisa, Cathy and Joan Estapa and Mrs. Florence Duke.

Others were Theresa, Debbie and Christine McCullough, Mrs. Patricia Parsons, Mrs. Audrey Asher and Mrs. Clara Lee Asher.

DAR celebrates 90th birthday

The Gulf Coast Chapter of the Mississippi Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution met Oct. 8 at the Gulfport-Harrison County Public Library for the first regular monthly meeting of the 1980-81 season.

John Coker, assisted by Mrs. Kim Coker, presented a program of slides of the Holy Land and a speech on "Roots of Our Faith".

Mrs. Richard Denny Shelby, National Society President General's message reminded us of October 11, 1890; when the organizational meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held in Washington, D.C.

The 90th official birthday of the society will pay tribute to Eugenia Washington, Mary Desha, Ellen Hardin Walworth, and Mary S. Lockwood, the four founders of DAR.

According to Mrs. Shelby, "the greatest and most enduring tribute to our founders" is the dedicated service of 647,038 daughters who have worked for historic preservation, promotion of education and patriotic endeavor during these 90 years. This service to God, home and country is everlasting. Mrs. Shelby reminded us of the indifference of eligible voters in this country - of the 142.2 million people of voting age, only 97.8 million (68 percent) were registered for the 1976 Presidential election, and 58 million cast their ballot. Approximately 52 percent of those eligible to vote were women. Responsibility falls on women to exercise and proclaim the basic duty of good citizenship."

The yearbooks for 1980-1983 were distributed to chapter members.

Mrs. James Coker and Mrs. Nolan Barrios, co-hostesses, chose a Halloween theme for the tea table.

The next regular meeting will be November 12 at the Mississippi City United Methodist Church at 2:30 p.m.

News from the Church of St. Ann

The regular monthly meeting of St. Ann's Altar Society was held October 8 in the parish hall with Mrs. Leonard Rupp, president, presiding.

Father Stack opened the meeting with a prayer for peace in the world.

The group made plans for a picnic at Buccaneer Park, Shelter No. 1 Wednesday, October 15, at 4 p.m. All members and their families were invited to attend.

Father Stack announced the rosary will be recited after the 9 a.m. Mass each Wednesday during the month of October.

Mrs. Rupp appointed a nominating committee for election of officers to be held during the November 3 meeting.

Those appointed to serve were Mrs. Velma Schmitt, Mrs. L.I. Kenmore and Mrs. Juliette Ladner.

Since there was no further business, the meeting was closed with a prayer.

Baptists break ground on Perkinston campus

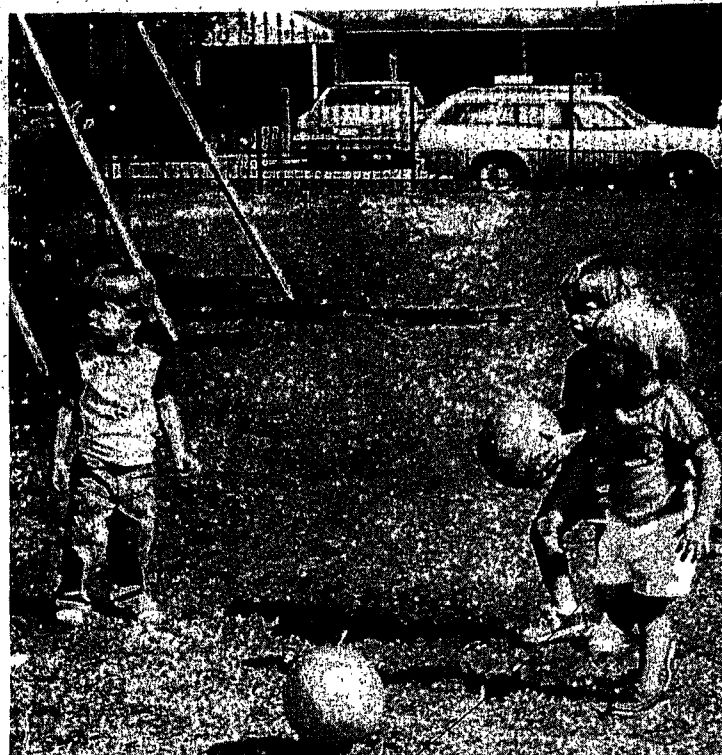

The Baptist Student Union at Gulf Coast Junior College in Perkinston recently started construction on a 2,800 square-foot union building.

Completion date is tentatively set for early February.

Jerry Merriman, state BSU director, said the structure "will be used for worship and recreation. It will include a kitchen area for members."

The union is active on 22 state campuses and provides "outreach services and a church home away from home," Merriman added.
